Venue Hire for Members

Terms and conditions

1. Any member can only book one event / calendar year.
2. No member can book an event on a Saturday on behalf of a friend unless agreed by committee
3. Members may book an event on behalf of the family member on a Saturday. However this would still constitute as their yearly booking.
4. Members may not book their company party or association party in order to receive the discount rate.
5. Members can bring in their own food for cooking or precooked as long as the following conditions are met.
 - The use of any kitchen equipment must be supervised by a kitchen manager from E by E.
 - The kitchen and galley area must be cleaned and returned to its original state before you leave. Kitchen porters are available upon request
 - Crockery and cutlery is only available on request and may be subject to charges.
6. If you wish to have furniture brought in such as round tables and banqueting chairs this would be subject to written agreement and may be incur charges for staffing
7. Drinks prices will be at event rates for private events (please ask venue manager for full bar tariff).
8. For all club activities prices will remain at normal club rates. No drinks may be brought on to the premises unless otherwise agreed by the venue manager You may bring in a DJ and or AV equipment as long as the equipment has been PAT tested within 6 months or the contractor has insurance for all his equipment for a minimum £2m public liability
9. All costs must be paid on or before the night of the event. A non-refundable deposit of £120 will be required to hold any date.
10. Once a booking is made you will receive a signed contract and it will be confirmed by email.
11. The clubhouse is available for members' children's parties during weekdays. Events cannot be booked for Tuesday evenings and any weekend events cannot start before 7pm. Please note. No members can be ejected on a weekend evening. However it is hoped that members that are in the clubhouse at that time will respect other member's wishes for privacy.
