

Label it or lose it

It is a perennial task keeping the yard and associated sheds and workshops tidy and safe. A major headache for the yard team is keeping on top of the rubbish and abandoned equipment that accumulates. To help with this we have the Label it or lose it policy. Basically this means that anything laying about that has no identifiable owner is a candidate for removal.